NATHANIEL STOOKEY'S

Text by Lemony Snicket

THE COMPOSER IS DEAD

OCMA is proud to announce a creative partnership with Coos County libraries and schools (including Reedsport). At this year's 36th Annual Oregon Coast Music Festival we will be one among five professional orchestras worldwide to present Nathaniel Stookey's whodunit, The Composer is Dead.

In anticipation of this grand POPS event on Thursday, July 24th, at MHS Auditorium, librarians and teachers have agreed to present programs to get the baton tapping ahead of time.

Thanks to funding from CB/NB Rotary and Coos County Cultural Coalition, OCMA is able to offer each library three books with CD's to add to their collections and/or to give away at their programs. In addition, OCMA will offer each library two 2013 t-shirts designed by winning 3rd grader, Samantha, and ten free family tickets to the POPS concert for those attending library events.

There will also be a RAFFLE for a The Composer is Dead book with CD autographed by Lemony Snicket. Tickets are $1.00 and will be available at all OCMA events, on-line, and at our Farmers' Market booth. Drawing to be held at the POPS concert.

The school and library events are perfect introductions to the joy of creating music for your youngsters. And kids of all ages will be entertained and intrigued by the performance on July 24. To make it more affordable, OCMA is offering a Family Ticket (one adult and one child) for $20.00.

The Composer is Dead will be performed at OCMF's POPS concert on Thursday, July 24. The program theme is "Murder, Mayhem, & Mystery", so this rollicking whodunit is a perfect fit.

Jason Klein will conduct this fun romp through the orchestra and its instruments with OCMA Music Director James Paul narrating.

"This is a perfect time to get your kids interested in music of another kind."
