Bach-analia, a weekend fundraising event to benefit the 36th annual Oregon Coast Music Festival will be held March 29 and 30, 2014. The featured artist at both events is Priscilla Dantas, a Brazilian piano prodigy with talent beyond her years. She took her first piano lesson at nine and was the subject of a Brazilian national television news report at eleven. In 2007, when she was fourteen, she was soloist with the Recife Symphonic Orchestra, performing Mozart’s Concert in C. Currently a junior on scholarship at the University of Oregon, Ms. Dantas excels in academics and piano. Her free time is spent performing benefit concerts throughout Oregon and Brazil to help fund her education.

Ms. Dantas will perform at a house concert Saturday, March 29 at 7pm. A lovely Coos Bay home will be the relaxed, informal setting for an evening of music as it was meant to be experienced. This is a potluck, bring a dish and beverage to share. Seating is limited, don’t wait to contact the OCMA office at 541-267-0938 to make reservations and then learn the location.

Sunday, March 30 at 2pm the second Bach-analia event with Ms. Dantas will be held at the Emmanuel Episcopal Church 400 Highland, Coos Bay, OR. No tickets needed for this event so bring your friends and family to this intimate musical event. Donations will be accepted at both events on behalf of the Festival and Ms. Dantas.

Pricilla Dantas will also present a Kinder Konzert event at North Bend High School on Monday March 31 to share her love of classical music with some of our youth with musical interests.

A big focus for 2014 is our presentation of The Composer is Dead at the Pops Concert 2014! With supporting grants from Coos Cultural Coalition and Coos Bay/North Bend Rotary OCMA has arranged for each library in the Coos Library District and the Reedsport Library to purchase additional copies of the book and to sponsor youth activities with this theme. OCMA also has free tickets for these libraries to give away at their events. It is a special category of ticket, designed just for this concert, a Family Ticket! This will admit one adult with one child for $20 and can be purchased on our website. Additional tickets are available at regular OCMA pricing. Events are also being promoted at area elementary school libraries.

Stookey’s The Composer is Dead is similar to Prokofiev’s Peter and the Wolf and Britten’s The Young Person’s Guide to the Orchestra, (performed beautifully by our own orchestra just this past Festival) in it’s intention to introduce young audiences to the instruments in the orchestra. It will be presented as the first half of the POPS Concert, THUR, July 24 at 7:30pm with the theme of “Murder Mystery & Mayhem” at the Marshfield HS Auditorium in Coos Bay. And we will have the honor of a guest conductor again this year!

How can you help? Plan to attend with your favorite young person. And don’t forget to bring all those young at heart as well!

All new OCMA gear available at Wine Walk, Farmers’ Market, Festival events and online at OregonCoastMusic.org
